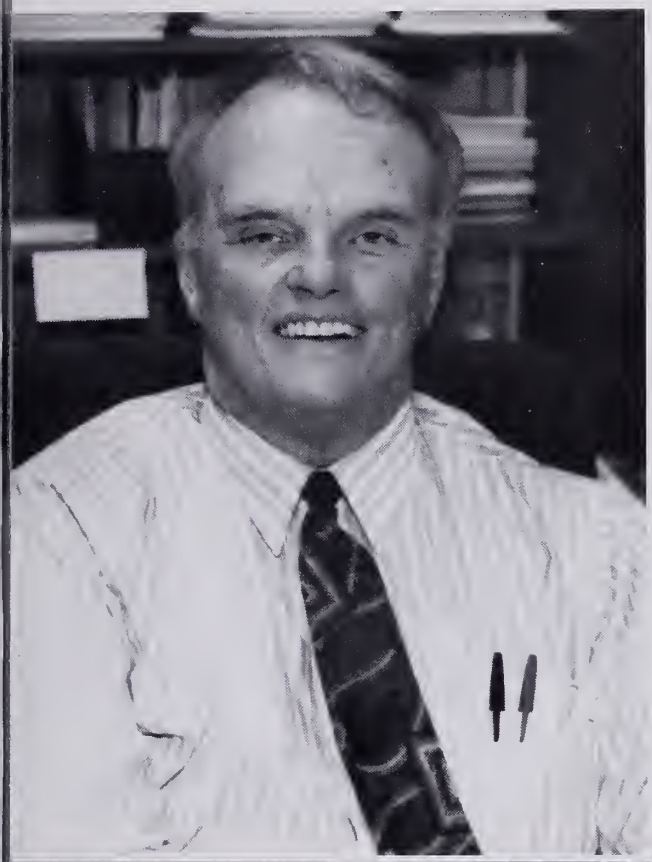
Mr. Whiting
Senior Class Advisor

Well after someone has been an advisor as long as he has, it's difficult to find the words of thanks and appreciation that haven't already been used. Our senior year would definitely not have been as fabulous and memorable without his dedication. He's worked countless hours behind the scenes preparing activities so our senior year would be one to remember for the rest of our lives. From the blood-mobiles to the fund-raisers, to our magical prom — he made it happen for us; We couldn't have asked for a more perfect advisor. We'd like to thank him for all that he's done for us. He'll always be one of the most special members of the senior class of 1997.

Mr. Angelari
Yearbook Advisor

Although this is his first year as the Yearbook Advisor, Mr. A. has put together and coordinated one of the finest yearbooks to come out of Methuen High. It wasn't uncommon to see Mr. Angelari and his yearbook staff working overtime, long after school ended, to give the seniors a book full of endless high school memories. He would even come to school on late evenings and weekends to work with his yearbook staff to meet deadlines. He helped with fundraisers and almost single-handedly raised thousands of dollars so those buying a yearbook could buy it at a lesser coast. Mr. A. has put up with stolen money, missing pictures, and missed deadlines, but yet through it all he was determined to give you, the senior class of '97, an outstanding yearbook. So for all his overlooked and unappreciated work, we'd like to dedicate this yearbook to him, for without him none of this would be possible.

Dedications
Jerome Winegar Principal



Mr. Winegar, the seniors and yearbook staff feel that we have been fortunate to have had you as our new principal this year. We are proud that an educator with your extensive and varied background chose to come to Methuen High at this time in your career. At this point a little of your background may be appropriate to those reading this.

Mr. Winegar is originally from Missouri where he went to college, played football, and began teaching. He is a well-traveled teacher and administrator who eventually found his way to South Bostom High School. It was at "Southie" that Mr. Winegar gained international attention because he was hired to racially integrate the school on order from the federal court.

Mr. Winegar had been continuously employed by the Boston School system until he came to Methuen this past year. He brought with him interest in athletics, history, and social justice. He also brought four file cabinets full of articles on subjects of interest to him.

Since moving to Methuen with his wife Bel, he has made a determined effort to meet people and get a feel for the area. This seems easy for him because of his gregarious, laid-back, Mid-west nature.

Mr. Winegar, the yearbook staff of 1997 welcomes you to Methuen High School and hopes you have a long, productive tenure here.

CLASS of 1997

Mr. A. Steven Francis, Assistant

Mr. Francis, what more can be said of you that hasn't been said. Maybe it all came from you anyway. Not Really!

You are the most senior of all the administration in years spent at Methuen High School, yet you haven't lost one iota of your energy and dedication to the students here.

Everyone that your door is always open. When one goes through that door, he should be prepared for that inimitable Irish wit. Be prepared for your everlasting school spirit, and your interest in local history and sports (Your still the best basketball time keeper around). The seniors and yearbook staff want to thank you sincerely for everything this year. We wish you nothing but the best always.

Mrs. Blotner Assistant Principal

Mrs. Blotner, we are sorry you are leaving us. The seniors and yearbook staff are not only speaking for themselves in this sentiment, we are speaking for all the students and staff. After coming from Chelsea High two years ago you made and immediate impact on our school. You have been initially involved with student management and more recently involved with curriculum supervision, professional development for staff and served as a liaison between Methuen High School and the Facing History Program, the best program of its type.

We wish to thank you for maintaining your vision on a year marked by major change. You made it easier. We are sad and at the same time glad that you will be Principal of Kennett High School in what for you must be the God's country, the White Mountains, and North Conway, NH. Happy skiing to you and yours.

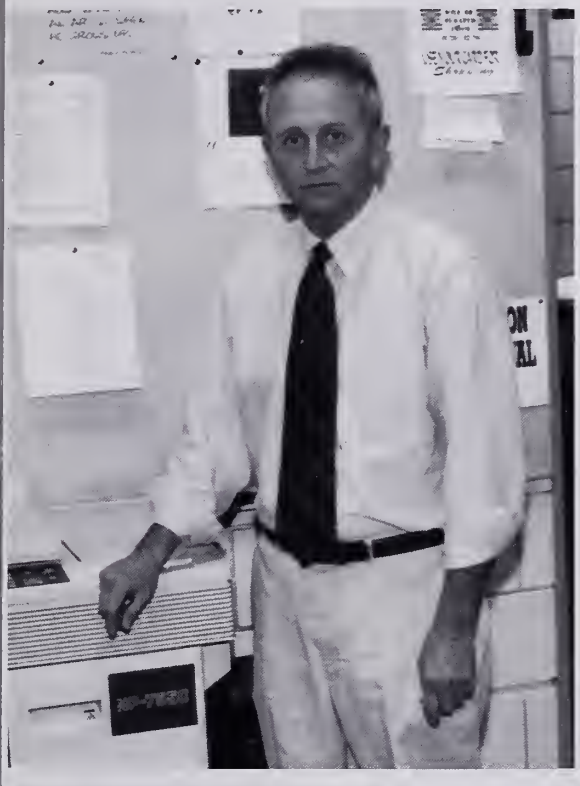
Jane Obshatkin, Vice Principal

The students and staff at Methuen High School would like to welcome you, Ms. Obshatkin, as our new Vice Principal.

You come to us from Natick High where you were Asst. Principal. Originally from Central Mass, you graduated from Boston College and to our good fortune, decided on a career in education. At Methuen High School Mr. Winegar has given you the job of running the day to day operation of the school. That's no easy task! You can be seen doing everything from scheduling to student management. Boy are you visible as a student manager!

Your school spirit is contagious and the yearbook staff would like to thank you for a great senior year and we would also like to wish you all the best in your future years at Methuen High School.

Special Dedication
Mr. Nicholson



Former High School Principal

Our last year at Methuen High was a difficult one to adjust to, as we were faced with many changes; one of them being the absence of Mr. Nick as our principal. During the first three years of our high school careers we were extremely fortunate to have him as one of our administrators. Even though he became the assistant superintendent, he still found the time in his demanding new schedule to attend all the important events here at Methuen High. His continued support to the Class of '97 and to the entire student body will not be forgotten. After all there's only one "Mr. Nick." Thanks for all your dedication and support.

Class History 1997

As we look back on the years we've shared, a smile comes to our faces,
We have memories of joy to hold that time never erases.
We've traveled along this winding road for four long years come June,
Some cannot believe that our high school days will end soon!
Remember that first Freshman day? The assembly hall is where we all did go,
New faces and friends were mixed in the crowd, yet our futures we did not know.
We elected officers: Beshara, Cote, DelliColli, and Hall,
They proved worthy leaders very early in the fall.
Peer Leaders' Banners helped to decorate the school;
They brightened our walls, and made us feel cool!
Milli Vanilli was introduced during our Freshman year,
And we got to see a bit of the fun that was in store for us here.
In the years ahead, we would soon discover what our parts would be,
Whether athletes, scholars, friends or foes, that was left to see!

So we blended in and rolled along into our second year,
As sophomores, we were no longer babies and had nothing left to fear.
Changes were made when election time came about,
They voted Stacey, DelliColli, Barbagallo, and Cote in, while others were voted out.
The 67th Induction of National Honor Society the school did hold,
They're not all geeks in that group, despite what you may have been told.
Then came time for the AIDS Dance-A-Thon, where everyone busted a move,
That's when we realized which of our classmates could really groove!
There were activities such as the Mardi Gras, Spring Fling and Hypnotist,
Those proved to be well worth the money for the classes we missed.
In the spring, the Girls Track Team proved to be best in the State,
Would other teams follow this path? To find out, we would have to wait.

Before we knew it, we were the upperclassmen and therefore so much more,
As juniors we already thought that we were the ones who truly ruled the floor!
There were ID badges which made us feel jailed,
If caught without them, you were sure to be nailed.
Our five minute passing time was now cut to four,
This caused us to rush ever more!
Some of us became sports stars while others made the grades in class,
Then came time for our Junior Prom, How fast the time does pass!
That night was shared with friends and we made memories that will surely last,
Yet like so many good things we must leave these in our past.

Now we reached the top; most of us had made it to our Senior Year,
And although we are eager to leave, you can't help but shed a tear.
You then realize that your high school years are done and the real world lies ahead,
You think about your teachers, parents, and friends and remember all they've said.
Our officers, Hall, DelliColli, Cote, and Barbagallo led us all year long,
And as we can see now they really never proved us wrong.
During this year's spirit week, the Seniors took the prize;
The Freshmen came in second, wiping tears off from their eyes.
In ninety-minutes blocks we learned our lessons during school;
If teachers gave us breaks during the classes, it was cool.
Susie was elected 97's Homecoming Queen,
And everybody cheered when she was crowned — what a scene!
The senior class play was funny and the accents were pretty good,
Steve wore a dress, Matt played a lawyer, and Keith ate too much food.
The Blood Drive was a thing in which we all participated,
It was okay, except for those who fainted.
The Mister Methuen contest was sure a lot of fun;
Golec, Lara, and Sawyer performed, but Harrington was number one.

We had some MVCs this year: swimming, boy's track, and volleyball to name a few;
They showed how great they really are, and we're so proud of you!
The wrestlers of Methuen High really showed their stuff,
Other wrestlers in the state found Methuen just too tough.
The boys of basketball traveled to the Fleet;
When they went there to play, they gave everyone a treat.
And where did we go after the games to eat and shoot the breeze?
The best restaurant in Methuen: of course, Applebee's!!
Those were great times we had, from week to week and year to year,
It's funny to think that on our first day we were filled with so much fear.

What will you remember from your years at Methuen High?
Hopefully the thoughts you keep will never pass you by.
Though memories — both good and bad — will linger in our mind,
The football games, the Proms, our friends, must all be left behind.
The time has come to say good-bye as we look toward tomorrow,
We can't help but have feelings of joy as well as thoughts of sorrow.

Good luck next year, and every year, in everything you do.
We wish for you the best and hope that all your dreams come true.

Class Prophecy

Who would have thought that ten years after graduation, the six of us would be working together as the proud new owners of Media-One! The year is now 2007, and let's see why people can or can't come to our party!

We couldn't have done it without the secretarial services of Kathy Amato and Michelle Budd.

Plus we could not have gotten here without our wonderful chauffeur Carlos Villafranca.

Hey, where's that list of people we invited to celebrate our newfound fame and fortune?

It doesn't matter, because no one's coming anyway.

At least some people had the decency to RSVP us.

What could possibly be more important than this party?!?!

Hayrol Silverio and Veasna Prum seem to think that their station wagon is more important!!

Yeah, and Adam Abou-Elias and Hasan Erdemir are busy pumping iron at Keith Laurencelle's "Lean Machine Gym and Fitness Center".

But also, David Ward, Mike Lamot, and Kevin Lasonde have been on the "MISSING" list since graduation. But you never know, they could show up any minute.

Taylor Towne might come after she's done walking her dog down Howe Street.

Oh, and Heather Anderson couldn't come because she's trying to keep up with her coaching duties at Central Catholic.

And Alex Pekar isn't coming since today is the grand opening of his sausage factory.

Louis Marcous has his book-signing today for World Records Set by Cousin Gary so he won't be here either.

Wait, hold on a second!!! Did anyone remember to call the strippers?

Of course! Tim Kotyla and Barbaros Dinler should be here around Nine.

What about Lenny Racite?

He now owns Vinny's Bar and Grill, so he's busy serving drinks to lonely bachelors John Harrison and Mike Gunter. There are some people who are waitressing there, too. Amy Michaud and Jennifer Santos.

We got a lot or responses from people who are still together after all these years. Jessica Leal and Ray Baril are married with twelve kids. I heard Steve Avramidis and Sonya Lebel are the godparents.

And Tina Galatas and Jeff Macoul aren't far behind with ten bundles of joy!

It's a good thing that Lisa Beaulieu, Kellie Doherty, Jen Pelletier, Amy Lakin, Wendy Jackson, and Melissa Vitale are still providing day-care services so the couples can come to our party.

Speaking of people who are married, remember Rebecca DelDuca? She eloped with John Connors to New Orleans.

Stephanie Todd also eloped with her fiance, who's in the service.

Lebanon seems to be the hot spot for marriages, too; Rita Bahan, Jill Collupy, and Patricia Mekhael went there to settle down.

What about the rest of our class? Is anyone coming?

Yup. Liz Billings and Najanne El-Kouhry are bringing the Coffee Coolattas, which were skillfully made by Kristen DeShaies.

And Dana Pastacaldi is bringing bagels from Au Bon Pain.

I heard that Bethany Lasonde and Amy D'Agostino were bringing deviled eggs to the party.

And Elizabeth Waterman is bringing the Friendly's Ice Cream Cake and her buddy Christine Fiorilla.

Also, Jen Breton is bringing the orange soda since she now owns Sunkist.

Well, at least some people are coming. Let's watch our award-winning programs while we're waiting.

Let's see what's happening on the news.

Hey, isn't that Tracey Borucki as the anchorwoman?

Yeah, and she's turning it over to Marissa Kaslow, who's live from the City Courthouse.

Mark Aiello and Dennis Dube are facing charges for statuatory rape.

And Pimp Daddy Brian Mackie is with his escort girls, Colleen Richard, Tricia Maunsell, and Sarah Merrow. They're wanted for performing illegal services.

Wow, isn't that Brian Kimball and Brendon Martino?

Yeah, it looks like they're wanted for computer fraud.

A lot of people are wanted for disturbing the peace: Julie Keleher, Mike Sheehan, Maribel Mendez, Shelley Peters, Bethany Greenwood, Aaron Dooley, Erica Wilson, Chris Leavitt, Luciana Soares, Robert Alicia and Jeidy Peralta are facing charges.

Look, Hung Nguyen, Hai Nguyen, John Wong, and Pierre Zouein are in court today for illegal smuggling. Dong Shin is in trouble because he fell asleep on his job!

Can you believe it? That's Thanh Truong facing charges for attempted murder of Lisa Grew.

What was her motive?

That number one spot.

There are some key witnesses though. Tony Puopolo and Heather Murray were playing their clarinets on the street and Amy Sherman and Michelle Riopelle were sipping cappucino from Jill Shepherd's "Cafe Sparkles", while listening to their performance.

And Meg Marcoux is outside the courthouse, holding a protest against ID badges.

Now Marissa is turning it over to meterologist Joe Fishwick, who is doing "Weather With Fish", starring weathergirl Taneka Ringo. Looks like good weather for the party.

Now we have to watch our Media-One commercials. Here's one for Smile-Bright Toothpaste with world-famous dentist Cara Cody. It's starring the ever-smiling Bethany Barbagallo, Sam Coco, and Jana Scalisi.

Here's a commercial for Bud Ice, starring who else but Jake Pelletier, Jason Sapienza, and Matt Bunting. They're with Bud Girls Alicia Cronin, Buffy Waters, and Charlene Dickie. I heard that the new marketing executive is Jim Sharp.

Now it's back to the news. The Health Report is being given by Sabrina Masucci. There's a list of people who are in the hospital for various reasons.

Zaid AlHussaini has been admitted into the mental ward for having one-too-many temper-tantrums.

Erin Beshara and Karen Fortuna are recovering from yet another knee surgery.

Adrian Coletta is also recovering from surgery; she had her sunglasses removed from her head.

It's nice that Jill McRobbie was by her side . . . that's what friends are for. And nurse Erin McRobbie is tending to her care.

A whole bunch of people are recovering from sun poisoning: Lisa Michaud, Tara Guilmette, Julie Lemieux, Valerie Lister, and Elizabeth Merrick.

And Paul Kern is still recovering from getting surgically removed from his ex-girlfriend.

Also, Paul Courtemanche is in a full-body cast for attempting his own stunts in Kung-Fu movies.

Whoa, who would have thought that little Emit Maiben would be in the hospital because of an over-eating problem.

And last (and certainly least) is Matt Garon and Jeff Briggs, who are getting their stomachs pumped for alcohol poisoning.

But not to worry because Doctor Bhavesh Patel is taking good care of them. With assistant April Challinor.

And now it's medical breakthroughs. Paul Holloway, Matt Tarness, Jay Naroian, and Justine Freeman took a new drug that has made them grow to an astounding 6'3".

I'm sick of the news. Let's change the channel. Put it on MTV.

On MTVOne it's Manny Lara and Vanessa Henry co-hosting the new Club MTV. They fly-dancers are Yudy Lara, Ledy Mencia, Julie Gosselin, Joannie Martinez, Connie Acosta Garcia, Luz Baez, little Carlos Rivera, Ary Ortega, and Wendy Beato.

They're all getting down!!

What's on MTV2?

It looks like a Battle of the Bands; some of those guys look familiar.

There's Adam McGrath, Steve Brodsky, Jay Godin, Joe Tombarello, Jake Fredette, Matt Lacasse, Mark Guy, Pat Pierce, and of course, the world-famous Kory Wagner. Todd Hot Bod Pollock is hosting with Kevin Buck. Tara Tziton is one of the judges along with Tonia Schroeder.

Oh, by the way, I got a letter from Gail Blotner and she's driving cross-country with Phish in a Volkswagon. She also wrote that Alisa King is finding fame as an artist in Paris and so is Eric Blanchard. Teaching art in Milan are Luis and Julio Espinal.

I heard from someone, too. Shaun Arsenault said that he has a tattoo and body piercing parlor with Hiram Cruz, Tanya Gavriluk, Lori Fazio, and Renee McHale.

Hey, look!! It's an emergency new flash! Generals Kevin Stacy and Frank Biancardi II are attempting to drive a truck to Zaire in hopes of making peace. Four-star General Andy Van Horn is awaiting them in Africa with war paint and fatigues.

Speaking of military, did you hear of those die hard JROTC cadets? Some of them have returned to Methuen High School to instruct the youth to become better Americans. Kerry Demers, Pat McAndrew, Mark Casey, David Tumel, and Yahlon Selli.

And Denise Torres founded an all girls military academy.

Let's keep surfing the channels.

Here is an informercial.

I love those! Keep it on!

Hey, look! It's Kim Chouinard selling "Rosie's Blush". And you'd never guess who is modeling all her make-up, Diane Gabryjelski. And here comes Erin Coco, running onto the stage, late as usual.

What's with this 24 hour car channel? Wait, I recognize those people! It's Joe Messina, Chris Greco, Kevin Small, Steve Mailoux, Fred Anderson and Jose Gomez with their advertisment for "Deals on Wheels". The only place where you can get a souped-up Subaru with mega-bass. Lucky for them they have Stephanie Hatem as their lovely assistant.

Someone else has a car shop, too. Bill Bailey Jr. has "Bailey's Buggies". Murat Aktas, John Daveta and John Palmer are working as his mechanics.

There is even an advertisement for Methuen Auto School. We all could have guessed Dani Wordell and Jeff Shea would be the instructors, with Diana Chiola and Eric Coppeta selling car insurance.

Change this channel!

Ooooh! What's this? the Olympics! Sarah Corbitt is playing the opening ceremony song on the piano. Running the torch is Nick Ellis and Jen Goossens. Nice legs you got there! And swimming in it for America is Michelle Bellavance. Super hockey stars Jason Daigle and Tom Beaulieu are high sticking it for Canada in battle with the US team, Dan Kobrenski, Phil Naroian and Gary Hughes. The figure skating team is doing well also, with Laura Ackryod and Tara Sanders. Kathy Cote and Sarah Riebel are getting their kicks against Brazil's soccer team.

Speaking of soccer, where is Sarah Pearson?

I think she is at the BBC with Jen Bradley and Katie Rock. They thought that our party was there.

The BBC? Mario Messina and Joe Golec are bouncers there. (They need eight dollars and a picture ID) I heard Vanessa Willis, Diana Lombari, Elisha DiFrancesco and Jen Robichaud are with the DJ. Maria Gagne was spotted outside selling fake ID's.

Anyway, back to the Olympics. Did you know that it is being sponsored by Fila? The spokespeople are Courtney Adair, Heather and Jen Lessard, Joe Valerio and Christine Iacono. There wearing some FILA sneakers is track-star Steve Parker with number one fan and friend, Young Pak.

Another sponsor is, naturally, McDonald's and I believe that Carlos Castillo is the new chain owner, and multi-millionaire.

The Olympic baseball game was postponed because Rob Prindle, Scott Coppeta, Mike Coughlan, Scott Pellerin and Adam Gabryjelski had various hangovers and haven't showed up yet. Steve Blinn was also trady. It is believed that he is still receiving his pre-game warm-ups.

By the way — I heard from Susie Castillo. She's working the runways of Paris with Kelley Lebel, Shannon Murphy, and Venkya Encarnacion so they're too sexy for our party.

They're . . . Sassy!!

Yeah, and Susie's loving husband Marco Aviles is her agent, while make-up artists Carolyn Alicea and Heather Naiman are adding the finishing touches. And fashion consultant Jamie Coletta is checking up on their work.

And Amy Ebert and Matt Giglio are busy taking photographs of the supermodels. Maybe we'll see those pictures soon on the cover of Cosmo!

Let's tune back to the shows.

On ESPN 1 is Tim Cote golfing his way through the US Masters. He's surpassing his opponent, Tiger Woods. It appears as though John Pickles is the caddy for Tim. I think that's Ray DiFiore as sports caster.

Wait, change to ESPN 2!

Hey, there's the WWF wrestlers! From Methuen High School there's Andy "Suburban" Erban, Brian "the Killer" Cameron, and Sean "Milo" Milovanovic. Sean's wife Tammy Ciras is his inspirational mentor. Looks like Mike Soucy and Steve O'Brien are the ringside announcers. Ryan McElhiney and Mike Hargreaves are also there filming this event.

Speaking of which I think that Dan Ferland, Nelson Alexandre, and Dennis Frongillo are in the ML hallway, PRETENDING to be WWF wrestlers.

After this program, there's a basketball game scheduled to air, I bet super-star Brian Bettano will be shooting hoops along with Bill Grealish and Rob Rose.

You know, I don't think Laura Dion and Heather MacBride will be coming to our party either because they're busy surfing the internet.

Okay, next station please!

I don't believe it, there's a cooking show, starring Jonathan Schiavone, and Alison Bazdanes. Jon's friend Joe O'Connell is in training with them. Hey, Jonathan LeClerc and Dave Billings have provided the MUSHROOMS. Whatever they're making, I hope they can bring some to this party!

Now there's an advertisement for all the latest fashions "Rivera Twice". A clothing company owned by Lillyvette and Lisandra Rivera. But they're been in close competition with Adiris LeBron and Jocelyn Lebron's line of clothing, "Lebron's Latest Fashions".

Here's some good news I received with the RSVP's for the party. Casey Pelletier and Kellie Buote have volunteered to teach elementary students who are hearing impaired. They're going to be nationally recognized by the president next week, don't you guys think that it's weird that one of our former classmates is the president of the United States. But good for Melissa Woekel, she came out of her shell. Also giving back to our communities is Karen Barrett who is planting trees and Jen LaLonde who has opened up the WWSPCA, which is the World Wide Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Also, I saw a Broadway advertisement for an upcoming hit performance! Many people on our guest list are involved with the production of The Frog Prince. Katie Firth is starring as the princess with Barry Muise as the frog who turns into her charming prince. I'm not sure who his character is, but Ryan Sawyer will be carried around by women's in togas. Amanda Shaw also had one of the main parts, but I guess she's been swept off her feet by a pizza delivery boy! Jarrod Canane is skillfully manning the lights. And Elissa Brown is supposedly the director, but she has yet to show up. Tickets sales haven't been that great, Jen Lord and Steve Crowell were the only ones in attendance for Katie's debut. I can't believe they chose that over our party!

Now here's another commercial. This one is for Hanes T-shirts and Brian Alliette is the spokesperson for them because he modeled them so well in high school.

Hey, there's also a talk show on. Jessica Strasnick is the host of her own show, "Gossip, Gossip, Gossip" with guest star Kyle Flanagan talking about his book, "I've Finally Found Jesus, and I'm a Changed Man". I think I see some people in the audience that I recognize. Isn't that long-time friends Kami Fouquart, Kelly Fitgerald, Stacey Gallagher, and Jen Theberge? I think they all own a business together, and that they've been pretty successful too.

After this talk show is a variety show "What's Going On?" hosted by none other than Keith Arsenault. On today's show scheduled to appear is the president of the Bon Jovi fan club, Jeff Congo, Hollywood comedian Brian Angelari, and famous Texan line dancers Mike Cook and Melissa Quinlan.

Hey, I forgot to mention something! Best of friends Stacy Cronin and Bobbie Lyn Daly have met gorgeous lifeguards and now live in California. Too bad they couldn't fly out for the party either!

Also, I guess Alexander Caminero is back at Methuen High School because Mrs. Bergeron insists that he still has gym classes to make-up. Also back at MHS is Julie Carbonello who is the new yearbook advisor.

You know, the other day I went by a pool hall and I saw Jeff Coco and Nathan Clark playing, then I stopped by Osco to pick up a prescription and Chris Smith was still there! Talk about dedication!

Back to our shows now. I haven't seen one of those Monster Truck shows in ages. But it's John Cieslik and Eric Chase racing around in their ATV's. Covering this Demolition Derby are Chris Boisse and Jeff Malley. Mechanics Chris Chojnacki and Charles Hoegan are on hand to help anyone in a fix!

Change the channel, these guys are too rough for me!

Ok, how about this back on ESPN 1 is a football game. Head coach for Notre Dame Kris Harrington is going against high school football buddy Chris Sturgis who is the head coach for Brigham Young University. In case of any injuries, athletic trainer Dave Cyr is close by. Also on the field is mascot, former known as Ranger Girl, Jessica DeBurro.

Here are some more commercials during the time-out of the football game. Lee Isensee and Jon Totman are on advertising hair coloring for the look they had way back when their volleyball team was number one!

Now another advertisement with Meghan LaFlamme for yachting lessons, and for a limited time only, all participants will receive a free Hawaiian shirt.

Oh, there's someone else I knew wouldn't be able to attend. A.J. Brear is now the head librarian at the Boston Public Library. He's busy with that, but at least he's doing something he enjoys.

If you want to talk about political figures, look on C-span, it's Chris Valiere and he's a delegate to the United Nations. Also, on C-Span-2 is Congresswoman Ingrid Vasquez. All her dedication for our student council sure paid off!

Some people ARE famous embassadors. Joen Delgado, Aldrin Henriquez, and Ivonne Soto are some, just to mention a couple.

Any game shows on right now?

Yeah, look it's Wheel of Fortune with David Silva as the show host and Tabitha LaPointe as the new Vanna White. Do we know any of the contestants? One of them is Danielle Dowd and another is Kelly Loeschen and Sean Love.

Wait some other people couldn't attend either. Robert LeBron and Judy Needham have moved to Florida and are living in Palm Springs. And while I'm mentioning Florida, I read in a magazine that Therese Rodgers and Christina Medina are now the private agents of Winnie the Pooh, in Disney World. And Jocelyn McCann is now THE private owner of disney world itself.

Here's another commercial. This one is for Pantene Pro-V and Julie Murphy is the ad-girl. She still has those gorgeous locks after all this time! I know that Diana Gonzalez has her own hair salon and she has Jeanette Lopez working for her.

Whoa, who put this channel on! These guys should be censored! Oh no! More MHS grads! It's Dan Garcia, Juan Castanos, Chad Nolet and Jason Kraunelis as Chippendale dancers! ((bom chika bom baaaaaaaaaaa)) Hey, isn't that Max Minaya as the host, nice leopard underwear!
